

Carrollton-Farmers Branch RSPA
General Meeting May 18, 2022
Webb Chapel Church of Christ

President Beth Sargent called the meeting to order at 11:07 AM and led the pledges.

Beth announced that the minutes for the February meeting and the Treasurer's report are posted online.

Membership: 1st Vice-President Shaima Hakimi introduced a new member, Anita Shepherd. Shaima stated a cash gift will be given to a member who submitted dues on time and then randomly drew a winning member's name.

President Beth Sargent recognized members who contributed to the wellbeing and success of our chapter this year. Certificates were given to the 5 officers and 13 chairs, and those who served on the committees were recognized.

Beth reported the results of the member survey to provide feedback. It was determined that we will continue to use Zoom for members who cannot attend meetings in person. Linda Bambina won the random drawing for completing the survey.

Children's Book Project and Communications: 2nd Vice-President Lori McCall reported that 2,387 books were delivered on May 16 to Blair, Furneaux, Blanton, Sheffield, and Riverchase elementaries. The schools were very grateful for the books. Della Swaim announced that the Carrollton Woman's Club granted $1,500 to the book fund.

Legislative: Pat Enlow reminded members to vote in the primary run-off elections because of critical support for TRTA. Pat answered a couple of questions from members.

Field Trips: Lee Nitcholas shared details for the trip to Top of The Hill Terrace and mentioned possible summer field trip.

Healthy Living: Carol Sprawls announced awards to the captains of the WAT Teams who received 3rd, 4th, 7th places in the state competition.

Program: Lori McCall introduced the guest speaker, Detective Rutherford of the Farmers Branch Police Department, who is the lead officer for fraud. He shared information on how to protect yourself online.

President Beth Sargent adjourned the meeting at 1:10 PM.
