

CFB RSPA GENERAL MEETING

December 11, 2024

Webb Chapel Church of Christ, Farmers Branch, TX

This month's meeting was highlighted by a Bake Sale that earned $733 for scholarships for new teachers.

President Shaima Hakimi called the meeting to order at 11:07 am.

1st Vice President Lynn Scifo led the pledges to the flag and introduced new attendees Pat Steed, Jean Wells, Martha Dodson and Tere Troncoso.

2nd Vice President Kimberly Guinn announced that we exceeded our goal to earn $5000 by our participation in the Hundred X project. The $5648 earned will go towards purchasing books for second graders at the end of the school year.

Pat Enlow notified us that $345 was deposited into the scholarship account at the C-FB Educational Foundation for new teachers. We also were encouraged to contact members in Congress to express our support for eliminating WEP and GPO.

Ellen McLoughlin stated the Retirement Benefit Presentation will be held on February 22, 2025 via Zoom. If we know of school personnel who will be retiring in the next 5 years, they should be alerted to this seminar.

Kay Edmondson reiterated that Volunteer (nonpaid) Hours earned from January 1 – December 31, 2024 need to be sent to her as soon as possible. She must submit the report in early 2025.

The Chili Cook Off and Bingo will be held on January 15, per Lee Nitcholas. Also, Pat Enlow was signing up members who would like to attend a CFB Campus tour sponsored by Dr. Wendy Eldridge in February.

Carol Sprawls reminded us of the monetary rewards we can receive with our TRS Active Care membership but must be reported and some must be used by the end of 2024.

Carol and Maxwell Kashiwa led the group in a Disco Santa N.O.E.L activity.

Inspirations was presented by Bill Nitcholas.

Lunch was from Two Guys from Italy, tea was compliments of HTeaO and desert was provided by our generous bakers.

Kimberly Guinn introduced Dan Henry, Chief Meteorologist at Channel 4 news.

Door prizes were won by Donna Wright and Glenda Blankenship.

The meeting adjourned at 1:06 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Maxwell Kashiwa
